WASHINGTON, Nev. 22.—Senators Reed, of Missouri; Pomerene, of Ohio, and Shields of Tennessee, all Democrats, are among those invited by President-Elect Harding to confer with him on the league of nations issue and other matters after his return from Panama, according to Harry M. Daugherty, Mr. Harding's pre-convention campaign manager, who was in Washington today, Others asked to offer suggestions to the President-elect. Mr. Daugherty said, finelude Senators Borah, Johnson, of California; Lodge, Knox. Poindexter and, Mr. Daugherty thought, Herbert Hoover.

Informal conferences at Marion probably will begin about December 10. Mr. Daugherty said, adding that no definite date had been set for any cone to go there.

"Some probably will go singly while others may go in grouns," said Mr. Daugherty. There will be no pre-arranged schedules as to when different ones are to appear."

The President-elect plans to spend only a day in Washington after returning from Panama via Newport News, and will go immediately to Marion, Mr. Daugherty announced. He said Mr. Harding expected to resign from the Senate soon after January 1, when Governor-Elect Wills, a Republican, would be named to succeed Senator Harding. 1By Associated Press.]
